COOKE EXPOSES PLAN TO DEFEAT REPUBLICANS PLANS ARE LAID FOR TARIFF FIGHT

'TISER PLOT EXPOSED

J. P. Cooke of the Republican Territorial Committee has laid bare the whole Advertiser plot to defeat the Republican party. Cooke dragged the information out of A. P. Taylor during a conversation held Monday evening. Taylor is the 'Ero of the Lee Let case and several other morning paper fiascos. Cooke engaged him in a conversation regarding Cathcart and the straight ticket. Taylor waxed warm. Cooke let him warm up a little more, in order to draw him out. Finally Taylor said that he did not intend to vote for Harry von Holt. Cooke asked him why not. Taylor responded that von Holt was one of the committee that upheld Cathcart. Taylor then added to the information he was giving. He said he did not intend to vote for Douthitt, giving as his reason that Douthitt was on the stage the night of the Cathcart Orpheum meeting and showing his approval of Cathcart. Cooke then let loose on Taylor. "You have been giving me the information I have been looking for," said Cooke. "I have believed it of the Advertiser crowd from the first, but you have finally confirmed it. Your crowd claims to be anxious to defeat Cathcart for what you claim is for the good of the community. AS A MATTER OF FACT YOU ARE DOING YOUR UTMOST TO DEFEAT THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET AND YOU KNOW IT. Your whole scheme is one of revenge. You are trying to do up the Republican party. You talk of a straight ticket except for Cathcart and everyone of you is doing your utmost to defeat the Republican party and the Republican organization." Taylor could not deny it, so he didn't try to.

They will speak at both the Kakaako and Alea meetings. Two large crowds will turn out tonight to hear the Republican candidates, one at the corner of Halekauwila and South streets, and the other at Alea. The interest in the campaign is intense, and centers around the Republican candidates to a great extent. The Republicans have some very able speakers among their number, and those who attend the meetings tonight may expect to hear several stirring addresses. Those who will speak at the South and Halekauwila streets meeting are: A. D. Castro, J. C. Cohen, E. A. Douthitt, John K. Kamanoulu, E. A. C. Long, Robert Shingle, John C. HAWAII'S CASES UP THIS WEEK

Whitney Receives Letter From Atty.-General Hemenway

Deputy Attorney General Whitney has received a letter from Attorney General Hemenway, dated Oct. 9, in which is given a brief summary of events pertaining to the Hawaiian cases which will be heard before the Supreme Court of the United States. According to Mr. Hemenway's letter the Hawaiian cases are before the Supreme Court at Washington this week.

In the Lanai case, Hemenway states that he intends to move to advance the case, but the motion will, he feels confident, be denied. Brown, McCandless' attorney in this case, insists on an oral argument, and as the case will probably not be reached on the calendar until somewhere around Christmas, Mr. Hemenway will be unable to appear, as he cannot remain that long.

Attorney Withington is there, he states, and will move to advance the Liliha street case. This motion will probably be lost and the case will be submitted on briefs.

ATTACKS DIRTY AND DESPERATE

"The statements in the Advertiser this morning call for answer," said County Attorney Cathcart this morning. "They merely show how desperate and dirty the attacks of my enemies are getting."

MAKIKI CAMP CASE BITTERLY FOUGHT

Attorney Peters and Tom Lucas Indulge In Repartee

The hearing of the case of M. Murakami, one of the Japanese charged with constructing a camp near the Kaahumanu school in violation of the new ordinance, took place in the Police Court this forenoon, but was not completed, and the matter had to be continued until next Monday. The case was bitterly fought by Deputy County Attorney Milverton, who conducted the case of the prosecution, and E. C. Peters, who appeared for the defendant. The best scrap of the lot was, however, one between Tommy Lucas, the well-known contractor, who was called as an expert, and Peters.

Lucas was the first witness for the prosecution, and he testified to the course of construction of the camp and the nature of the building, which, he said, from his observation of what had been done so far, was going to be a cheap job.

KAUAI DEMOCRATS MAY GET 300

Supervisor Wishard Says No More Possible; Fairchild

"We have about eleven hundred votes in the County of Kauai," said Supervisor Wishard, who came to town today for a short business trip. "The Democrats may possibly poll three hundred of those votes but not one more. McCandless made somewhat of an impression for a time, but his misstatement of the land situation was very quickly exposed by the Delegate and Senator George Fairchild. The latter, though certain of election on account of having no opposition, is working hard for the ticket, and gaining splendid results."

TO TAKE UP TARIFF

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—IF REPUBLICAN CONGRESS IS REELECTED, TARIFF HEARINGS BEGIN NOVEMBER TENTH, PRESS WILL ANNOUNCE SCHEDULE ORDER.

This cablegram was received yesterday afternoon by J. P. Cooke. It means that the tariff discussion will be taken up immediately the elections are over, so that the special commission will be ready to report to the extra session of Congress to be held immediately after March 4th. It also points the great importance of Hawaii returning the present Delegate to Congress in order that it shall be equipped with the best working team for the protection of Hawaii's interests.

What Judge Lindsay Thinks of Cathcart

(By CIRCUIT JUDGE ALEXANDER LINDSAY JR.)
"Since I have been on the bench, Mr. Cathcart has been before me in his official capacity on many occasions. Last year I presided over the criminal branch of the Circuit Court, and from my experience with him there, I believe him to be the most able prosecutor we have ever had. Of course, I know nothing whatsoever about these outside matters except what I have seen in the newspapers. Mr. Cathcart is an able lawyer, and he has always shown a spirit of fairness when appearing before the Court."

GRAND JURY TAKES UP ASSAULT CASE

Probable That No Bill Will Be Returned Against Jap

No indictment will be brought in against Hiyashi, the Japanese servant who has been under arrest for assault in the sensational Bode case, according to all the information that can be learned. The Grand Jury took the matter up this morning, and both Mrs. Bode and Miss Griffiths were witnesses. The sum and substance of the whole matter seems to be that there is not sufficient evidence that the person who committed the assault was Hiyashi, and it is probable that no bill will be returned against him. Various other rumors as to how the assault was committed have been floating around the community for the past few days, though it is probable under the existing circumstances that the truth or falsity of these will never be brought to light.

STRAIGHT TICKET

Abe Found In Dalny

"The campaign has taken such shape that the fight for Cathcart is a fight for the straight ticket," said J. P. Cooke yesterday afternoon. "The morning paper outfit is ready to sacrifice the whole party in order to defeat Cathcart. They are using the most outrageous methods. From present indications I expect Cathcart to lead the municipal ticket. But we must fight for the straight ticket as that crowd is planning to knife the ticket in a spirit of revenge."

Chester Doyle will probably leave next Monday for the Orient, where he will get Y. Abe, the Japanese absconder, and bring him back here to face trial. The extradition papers have arrived from Washington and this morning Deputy Attorney General Whitney received a cable from Ambassador O'Brien stating that Abe had been located and arrested in Dalny, Manchuria.

This probably means that Doyle will leave for Japan on the next boat, which sails from here Monday. At present Doyle is ill, but he will undoubtedly recover sufficiently to make the start next week.
